Phil Jessup came in to ask if I had any further ideas on the Secretary's trip.

I appeared before the House Judiciary Committee on the Celler bill on immigration. Ben Brown, George Warren, and Irwin Tobin went up with me.

"Chuck" Spofford came in. He was in Washington today signing out at the Department.

Represented the Secretary at Joint Session of Congress to hear General Ridgway. He spoke well.

Attended a Psychological Strategy Board luncheon in Bill Foster's office.

Ambassador Cannon came in prior to returning to Portugal.

Herbert Matthews, of the New York Times, came in to see me.

Long meeting on Tunisia, at which the following were present: Messrs. Matthews, Jernegan, Nickerson, Donbright, Ferguson, Berry, Cyr, Maffitt, Wainhouse, McBride, Lewis Jones, and McWilliams.

George Perkins and Jamie Donbright came in to see me. Perkins is leaving tonight with the Secretary.

At 8:00 o'clock, E. and I saw the Secretary and Mrs. Acheson, and the others, off for Penn.
